REJECTED

To the honorable Judge Sabraw:

I write this letter to you regarding my case and my attorney, and I'm requesting that it be accepted as a motion filed with the court pursuant to the Due Process clause of the United States.

I will outline before this motion the facts in support for my request in replacing counsel, and my request of production of all discovery ~~attorney~~ that has not been given to me by my attorney or the government, for me to review and inspect.

From the beginning that my attorney was assigned to me, there has been no communication between us about my case. From the beginning I asked her for all the discovery regarding my case. Then she just changed address and phone number and I was unable to communicate with her for two months.
